

Rules & Regulations

[Extract]

Club regulations : All membership cards, regardless of the membership status, are nominative, non-transferable. An introduction letter from your Club has to be communicated to us prior to your arrival. All invoices must be paid on site.

Appropriate behaviour : Conduct yourself with integrity and courtesy while on Club premises or representing the Club externally. Refrain from disruptive behaviour, including excessive noise, inappropriate language, or conduct that may disturb the experience of other Members or guests.

Club facilities : Treat the Club's facilities and furnishings with care and respect. Follow the rules and guidelines for specific spaces, including dining areas, bar and private event space, to ensure equitable access and comfort for all. For everyone's tranquility, telephone calls must be processed discretely.

Guest policy : Each Member may bring up to 3 guests with them, under their membership privileges. Members are fully responsible for their guests while on Club premises. It is the Member's duty to ensure that their guests are aware and adhere to the Club's rules and regulations. Guests are expected to follow all Club policies, including appropriate behaviour, respect for staff and other Members, and the responsible use of facilities. Any misconduct by a guest may impact the host Member's status.

Dress code : Please respect a casual chic dress code throughout the Club. A tie is not mandatory. Management reserves itself the right to refuse access to the establishment.

Fitness center and wellness area : Access to activities and use of equipment are under the Member's full responsibility. It is therefore advisable to have one's health checked regularly. The Management declines all responsibility in the event of injury or material accident following a non-compliant use of facilities and equipment, failure to comply with safety rules, training plans or the Member's overestimation of their health condition. For everyone's comfort, telephone calls are not allowed in these areas.

General data protection regulation : We undertake to use your personal data, only in the professional context of our missions for which you trust us. For any information related to the use of your private data or your rights, we invite you to send us an email at club@saint-james-paris.com

The Club's Management reserves itself the right to exclude a Member from the premises, should they consider that their behavior or remarks go against the Club's interests and reputation. Any exclusion is permanent and does not require any justification from the Management team.

Acknowledgment : All Members agree to these Rules & Regulations upon visiting the property. This document may be updated periodically to reflect the evolving values and needs of the Saint James Club.
